Re: Daniel Miller v. Aramark Healthcare, et al.
Delaware Superior Court of New Castle County
C.A. No. 06-534 MPT

Dear Judge Thyng:

We are writing to request a suspension of the summary judgment deadline in the above-referenced matter. According to the Scheduling Order, all case dispositive motions must be served and filed on or before April 30, 2007. The parties have a dispute as to certain of Plaintiff's document requests, responses to which Plaintiff's counsel contends may be necessary to formulate a response to Defendant's anticipated motion for summary judgment deadline of two weeks. The parties, therefore, jointly request that the Court hold in abeyance the dispositive motion deadlines pending a resolution of this discovery dispute. Plaintiff anticipates requesting a discovery conference with the Court in short order.

Should the Court require any additional information, we remain available.

Respectfully, and with Plaintiff's counsel's agreement,

/s/ Christopher A. Selzer
